Management Supervision Review

Hello . If you were not supervised on any matters, click Not Supervised now.
Otherwise, please read the following brief instructions.

- Please complete at least one review for each of the top three matters listed below by clicking on the "Begin a Review" button for each matter. If you were not supervised, please click the "Not Supervised" button.
- Please complete at least one review for each of two additional matters not listed in your top three matters below. Please do so from the Additional Matters section at the bottom of this page. All other billable and non-billable matters for which you recorded time are listed there.
- You may complete reviews for as many supervisors as needed per matter by saving each review as it is completed and beginning again from this page for that same matter.
- Duplicate Reviews: If your review on one matter is applicable to one or more of your other top three matters because you had the same supervisor for those other matters, you will be able to so indicate at the end of the completed review.
- Until the deadline, your saved reviews can be edited or printed by you by clicking on the Edit or Print Preview link for each completed review. From the edit page, you may do four things:
  1. Apply the review to other matters (create duplicate reviews) if you did not do so when initially completing the review.
  2. Revise your answers and comments on that review.
  3. Revise your answers and comments on that review and apply those revisions to the duplicate reviews already designated for other matters. This will not occur automatically.
  4. Delete the review for the selected matter only or for the selected matter and any or all duplicate reviews.

Thank you.

RE: Your Personal Development Plan

Welcome to the on-line Health Care Associate Personal Development Plan template. Please use this template to prepare a Personal Development Plan (PDP) that will cover the period from July 1, 2000 through December 31, 2001. Your PDP will help you and us focus on your continued professional growth.

Among other things, the template contains the group's specific hours expectations regarding annual billable, pro bono, and investment time. As you know, the Firm recently established the minimum hours that are expected of associates in each of these three categories. With respect to billable hours, the minimum established by the Firm for associates with more than two years experience is 1800.

We are now being asked to let you know the number of billable hours that we expect you to work each year. As you may know, traditionally the Health Care group has been reluctant formally to establish billable hours requirements. Instead, the partners in the group believed that your goal as an associate should be to work hard and to perform top quality work for the Firm's clients. However, experience shows that those associates who are performing top quality work and are developing the legal skills that we expect have typically billed at least 1900 hours per year. Accordingly, you will see that the template states that our expectation is that associates with two or more years of experience bill 1900 hours per year. Those of you with less than two years of experience are expected to bill 1850 hours per year.

RE: Your Personal Development Plan

Welcome to the On-line Litigation Associate Personal Development Plan template. This template will help you develop a Personal Development Plan ("PDP") for the period from July 1, 2000 through December 31, 2001. Your PDP will help you focus on your continued professional growth in accordance with the Firm's Statement of Fundamentals. The template itself contains the specific hours expectations and guidance regarding investment time that the Litigation Group has developed for its associates for the period from July 1, 2000 through December 31, 2001.

- I. Annual hours expectations: As an associate in the Litigation Group, you are expected to devote your efforts toward serving the Firm's clients through your billable time, developing your career as an attorney through investment time and serving the community through pro bono work.
  - A. Billable Hours: Traditionally, the Litigation Group has been reluctant to formally establish a billable hours requirement. The Partners in the Group believe your goals as an associate should be to work hard and perform top quality work for clients of the Firm. In the past, those associates who are performing top quality work and are developing their legal skills at a pace and in a manner consistent with what is expected of partnership candidates have billed 2,000 plus per year. Accordingly, since we continue to expect our associates to become partners, it is the Group's expectation that its associates bill 2,000 hours per year.
  - B. Investment time: Investment Time is the time you spend developing your career as an attorney. It is imperative that all lawyers at the Firm, partners and associates, continue to grow professionally. Thus, it is important that all of our associates begin devoting time to developing their careers. To this end, the Litigation Group expects that its associates will devote 400 hours per year to Investment Time.

The purpose of your PDP and your Investment Time Commitment is to plan and implement your professional development as a Kilpatrick Stockton lawyer. There are innumerable activities that are appropriate to be recorded as Investment Time (based on your level of seniority) including client development, bar activities, alumni committee activities, community leadership, participation in CLE presentations, developing a key legal specialty and participation in Firm and Group administration. Your coach is responsible for helping you determine what Investment Time activities are most appropriate for you. Please keep in mind that you also have an obligation to the Litigation Group to assist in helping the Group meet its goals and priorities. Thus, when developing your Investment Time plan, you should take into consideration the Group Priorities listed in Section II below.

The Investment Time requirement is not intended to be "one size fits all." The Group's goal is to get you in the habit of spending time on career development regardless of your seniority. The 400 hours requirement is not an absolute, but a goal. Furthermore, what is appropriate work as Investment Time will vary according to your level of seniority. First and second year associates should be busy learning the practice of law and thus, are not required to prepare Practice Development Plans; however, they are required to meet the Group's Investment Time expectations. More senior associates should focus on practice development, community leadership, etc. The Group expects you to work with your coach to develop an individualized plan for your Investment Time.

When developing your Investment Time plan, keep in mind the principles set forth in the Firm's Statement of Fundamentals. To review the Statement of Fundamentals, please see document No. 824414 in the Atlanta Library.

- C. Pro Bono: Attorneys, you are engaged in a service profession and the Partners in the Group believe it is important that lawyers in this Firm serve the community. Accordingly, the Group expects all Associates to devote 50 hours per year to pro bono work, in addition to meeting the billable hours and Investment Time requirements.

II. Group Priorities:

- A. Develop a higher profile for the Firm and the Litigation Group in the local community and in the state courts, which may include involvement in the local and state bar associations, alumni committee activities and community and civic activities.
- B. Development of substantive subspecialties that either (1) distinguish the Litigation Group and its practice from our competitors, (2) fill gaps in our current areas of expertise, or (3) anticipate the future evolution of litigation practice.
- C. Development of a comprehensive training program for all Litigation associates, which may include participation in developing the Litigation Bootcamp, developing training materials appropriate for junior associates and preparation of seminars and training on areas of law that are particularly relevant to the Litigation Group's practice.
